Parent Expectations

Parent involvement is especially important for a music student's success. Please show your support by doing at least two of the following each week:

- Have your child give you an at home weekly "recital" showing what he/she has learned
- Have your child give you a "mini lesson" to show you what they have been learning
- Listen to several types of music (jazz, classical, etc.) together and discuss what you both like
- Take lessons or practice yourself!

Financial Responsibility Agreement

By signing this agreement, you acknowledge your financial responsibilities to Prairie Lane Studios. You are acknowledging that you have read, understand and agree to the tuition part of the studio handbook, including missed lessons and attendance policies.

Tuition is due the first day of each month. On time payments are appreciated. A $5.00 late fee will be added to payments received after the 10th of each month. Payment can be made by cash,

Zelle or check made payable to Tracy Smith. Students will not be able to participate in lessons or studio events if tuition has not been paid.

Tuition covers four weekly half-hour lessons per month. Students will choose a lesson time at registration. When there are five lesson days in a month, students will receive the fifth lesson at no extra charge.

Teacher reserves the right to discontinue lessons/ensembles with a student for poor attendance for lessons/performances, not being prepared for lessons/ensembles, late payments, poor attitude or disrespect towards instructor or others at Prairie Lane Studios.

Your tuition includes:

- Teacher experience and training
- Continuing education
- Studio scheduling, planning, communications, and administration duties
- Instrument maintenance (piano)
- Planning and expenses for performances/recitals
- Office supplies, computer equipment/software
- Taxes, insurance, utilities

Tuition does not include weekly materials (lesson books, assignment notebook), ensemble fees or instrument rental

Attendance Policy

Lessons cancelled by the instructor will be rescheduled if possible.

PARENT AGREEMENT: I have read, understand, and will abide by the studio policies as found in this document, handbook and on the studio website. I acknowledge my financial responsibility to Prairie Lane Studios and understand and agree to the studio attendance policy.
